

Indirect Category Manager

Company name: Multinational Chemical

Rol:

Safety: Interact with suppliers/ contractors to achieve the safety targets

Financial: Generate profitability

Strategy: Develop a strategic sourcing plan for European Indirect spend aligned to Business needs.

Job Description:

Multinational Chemical Company based in Barcelona is looking for an Indirect Category Manager responsible of Indirect Spend for the Europe. Position is regular and office based.

Incumbent will:

- Define and implement the procurement strategy for the indirect spend
- Be the interface between suppliers and Internal stakeholders like Plant Managers, Plant engineers, Maintenance Managers to drive procurement projects and optimize expenditures.
- Negotiate with suppliers to make sure standards of the company are always met and optimized.

Level of education & Experience in general

- Technical studies (BSc or MSc) with experience in indirect procurement activities
- Experience in fast-paced business and multinational environment is a plus

Technical skills:

- Understanding of business economics
- Project management skills
- Knowledge of Capital expenditures project requirements and contractual requirements.
- Strong quantitative and analytical skills
- Good negotiating skills

Behavioral skills:

- Interpersonal communications with ability to influence at all levels of the organization (verbal, written & presentation)
- Skilled in working cross functionally

APLICAR